CAJUN MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND

---

2416 Bourne Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota 55108

The John Hugelen Cajun Music Scholarship Fund is a non-profit fund generated by the community of Cajun musicians and dancers to support aspiring Cajun musicians in the Upper Midwest. Its goal is to realize the long-standing wish of John and Sandy Hugelen to provide financial help to musicians who wish to immerse themselves in a unique Cajun music learning experience.

At this time, applications are being considered for one or more tuition scholarships for the 2010 Cajun/Creole Week at Augusta Heritage Center in Elkins, West Virginia.

For information about Cajun/Creole Week, see:

<http://www.augustaheritage.com/cajun.html>

Submissions are accepted by mail only, to the above address, and must be postmarked by April 20, 2010*

Selection criteria include:

- Clear dedication to learning to play Cajun music
- Content of the application, including the letter of recommendation
- Expression of financial need

Priority will be given to musicians from the Upper Midwest (IA, IL, MI, MN, ND, SD, WI) and to first-time attendees or musicians under the age of 30.

About John

---

John Hugelen hailed from Iowa and was an integral part of the Cajun music community in Minnesota. Whether he was performing with the Cajun Hot Soles or playing at a jam, his presence meant something special was about to happen. He and his wife, Sandy, were regulars at Cajun Weekend at Folklore Village in Wisconsin and Cajun/Creole Week at Augusta Heritage Center in West Virginia. There they forged friendships with folks from all over the country. These scholarships commemorate John and his love of Cajun music.
